Singer/Songwriter Stephanie Erin Brill has been selected as a finalist in the Wisconsin Singer Songwriters Contest. Stephanie will perform her submitted song before a panel of distinguished judges on Friday November 8th 2013 @ the Unitarian Church – North, in Mequon WI.

The WSSS Selection Committee participated in a comprehensive review process that covered 79 songs. Original songs from 40 different songwriters were submitted that included musicians from Wisconsin and several from beyond it's borders. The selection committee has chosen (10) finalists to perform their qualifying song "Live" before a very distinguished panel of judges that include:

Paul Edwards: President/owner, Trax52 Recording Studio, Wisconsin's largest and ONLY Grammy Award-winning recording studio.

Tim Wurgler: Program Director for the Wisconsin School Music. His duties include festival support, Recording Studio, Marching Band Championships and the Wisconsin High School State Honors Project.

Stephanie Elkins: Host/producer of WPR's of Simply Folk on Sunday evenings from 5:00pm to 8:00pm.

Roy Elkins: Founder and CEO of Broadjam, Inc. serving independent musicians and industry giants such as Warner/Chappell, The Academy of Country Music, AMD, Yamaha, Peavey, and others.

Paul Rupp: Active musician/teacher in the Milwaukee area, past director of the Milwaukee Mandolin Orchestra.

Piet Levy: Music critic/reporter from the Milwaukee Journal Sentinel.

WSSS is awarding many fantastic prizes for 1st thru 3rd places. Top 2 winners get to open for L J Booth & Chris Kokesh on Nov 9th. @ Unitarian Church - North Stephanie Erin Brill is a gifted singer songwriter often described as "TALENTED BEYOND HER YEARS" at the young age of 16. Stephanie's musical journey started with mastering the piano at a very young age. Her teenage years keep her busy writing and recording original songs. Calling historic Cedarburg Wisconsin home, her piano based indie/folk/ pop/rock sound has established her as a "Rising Star" in the SE Wisconsin music scene. Performing energetic and passionate live shows as a solo artist or with her band, you will discover that Stephanie is passionate about her music!

The highly anticipated debut, “Save The Day” EP is due out December 2013. Featuring the single “Save the Day” the EP comprises 5 highly crafted songs. Under the direction of producer Tony Schueller in his Anton Music Productions, Stephanie was assisted on the recording with talented session musicians Dave Schoepke (Willie Porters Drummer) and Noah Sugarman “After The Blackout” on bass, along with other noted artists.

Honors include a MAMA 1st CHAIR AWARD and by WAMI with a “Rising Star” Nomination. Watch for her newly revised website, artist photos, newsletter, upcoming tour dates and the announcement of her Kickstarter Fan Funding Project in Nov/Dec 2013. Plans are underway for an exciting CD release concert in December 2013!

Inspired by many music legends such as Paul McCartney, Elton John, The Eagles, Alt Rocker Regina Spektor, Ben Folds and The Avette Brothers, her music is rich and mature. “I love to compose original songs that are meaningful” says Brill. Depending on her mood her music can be humorous, about love, friendships, and poverty or summer memories. Stephanie’s music makes a difference in people’s lives and it will inspire you!

Stephanie’s has graced many stages including the WAMI Summerfest Youth Showcase, Cedarburg’s Strawberry Fest Main Stage, Summer Sounds in the Park, Pabst Theatre, Frontier/Delta Airlines Center, Miramar Theatre, Cedarburg Cultural Center and Cedarburg Performing Arts Center, Steel Bridge Songfest, WAMI Downtown Alive Musician Showcase and many more...
