Brill’s Official Music Video supporting the “Save The Day” single and EP was released on April 10th, 2014. In her mask and cape, our super hero takes to the skies, observing the excessive overexposure of today’s pop culture and is determined to “Save the Day”. The producers of this campy music video involved the creative use of “green screen” backgrounds and flying scenes!

Stephanie accepted the challenge of creating all new material for this her First Studio produced EP and to assist in “Launching Her Career” to the next level.

In the Anton Music Productions Studio Stephanie improved her songwriting arrangements and lyrics under the direction of producer Tony Schueller. Stephanie was assisted on the re-coding with talented session musicians Dave Schoepke (Willie Porters Drummer) and Noah Sugarman “After The Blackout” on bass, along with other noted artists.

Nothing says, “We Believe In You” more than fans putting up their hard earned money to help you realize your dreams. Through a successful Kickstarter campaign, fans of Stephanie Erin Brill committed pledges to offset the cost to press physical copies of the “Save The Day” EP! The physical copies of the EP jacket and disc were released on May 7th, 2014.
